Pursuant to the terms of an Investors' Rights Agreement with the Issuer dated November 5, 2018, certain holders of the Issuers Common Stock, including FLS IX, are entitled to rights with respect to the registration of their shares of Common Stock (the "Registerable Securities") under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Beginning 180 days after the completion of the IPO, the holders of a majority of the then-outstanding Registrable Securities have demand rights to request the registration on Form S-1 of their Registrable Securities, provided the anticipated aggregate offering price, net of selling expenses, would exceed $10.0 million. The Issuer is required to file up to two registration statements that are declared effective upon exercise of these demand registration rights. In addition, the holders of a majority of the then-outstanding Registrable Securities can request that the Issuer register all or part of their shares on Form S-3 if the Issuer is eligible to file a registration statement on Form S-3 and if the aggregate price to the public of the shares offered, net of selling expenses, is at least $1.0 million. The stockholders may only require two registration statements on Form S-3 in a 12-month period. If the Issuer registers any of its securities for public sale, holders of then-outstanding Registrable Securities or their permitted transferees will have the right to include their Registrable Securities in such registration statement, subject to certain exclusions. All of these registration rights will expire, with respect to any particular holder, five years after the effective date of the IPO, or if earlier the date such stockholder (a) holds less than 1% of the Issuer's outstanding Common Stock (including shares issuable on conversion of outstanding convertible preferred stock) or (b) can sell all of its shares under Rule 144 of the Securities Act during any 90-day period.
